

RE-inspire Your Week

Sunday May 17	Monday May 18	Tuesday May 19	Wednesday May 20	Thursday May 21	Friday May 22	Saturday May 23
Today's service was put together using the thoughts, voices, and artwork of children in our Religious Exploration Program. Watch the service with your family! 	 We often use poetry in our RE classes and in UU services because writing and reading poetry are good ways of connecting to sacred things like love and nature. Read or write some poetry as a family.	Our UU sources teach us that a responsible search for truth is one that takes reason and science seriously. Try a science experiment today. Here's one of my favorites: https://www.momdot.com/create-your-own-indoor-waterfall-with-food-coloring/ 	With an adult, take some time to share some words of encouragement to let health care workers know how thankful you are that they are working so hard to help the many people who need them most right now. 	Audre Lorde  Today is World Day for Cultural Diversity. Discuss this Audre Lorde quote with your family. "It is not our differences that divide us. It's our inability to recognize, accept, and celebrate those	Harvey Milk was the first openly gay Politician. He was not only an advocate for the LGBTQI+ community, he advocated for all minorities. Today is Harvey Milk Day. Celebrate him. 	 Our 7th Principle teaches us that it's our job to take care of the environment. One easy way to do that is to challenge yourself and your family to turn off unused lights in your home.
