Christ the King Library Reading Suggestions Winter 2026-2027

The following books are suggestions about the life of Christ in the CTK Library. They will be on the "New and Featured" shelf unless they have already been checked out. (This is top shelf on the left as you enter the library.) You will find additional titles about the life of Christ in the 232 section of the library.

232.9 REA Jesus and His Times
by Reader's Digest
A pictorial presentation of times in which Jesus lived with accompanied by detailed information. "Experience everyday life, understand customs of New Testament times, meet Mary and Joseph, etc., and accompany the apostles as they spread the word. Emerge with a deeper appreciation of the man, his message, and the enduring religion he inspired."

232.908 BOR Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time
by Marcus Borg
"Borg provides an account of Jesus scholarship---told in simple language for lay readers---and of his personal struggle to find authentic, mature faith. In this small, eloquent and learned book, Borg directs his readers toward a relationship with the Spirit of God."

232.908 The Case for Christ
by Lee Strobel
"Strobel, a former atheist-turned Christian, asks the questions a tough-minded skeptic would ask and provides convincing answers to all of them. The Case for Christ presents overwhelming historical evidence that Jesus is who he claimed to be."
