

AGENT FEEDBACK

You can find some of your best mentors in the industry at conference! -Erin

The friendships/relationships that have grown from being apart of YA are something that you will always cherish because everyone is a phone call text message away when you need to bounce ideas or just need to vent. - Cody

Young Agents has had a great developmental impact on me. Being around like minded individuals in the same field has allowed for sharing of ideas, experiences, and industry knowledge that I believe has helped me to be more well rounded as a whole in my career. -Ryan

Young Agents has been an amazing resource for meeting other agents across the state that share a common profession and face the same challenges and achievements as me. -Elizabeth

You are surrounded by people that have been in this industry for decades and people who are just starting their careers!
-Amber

Young Agents has helped me meet people in our industry that help me daily to be a better agent and better serve our insureds.
