November 2021

SO GOOD TO BE TOGETHER AGAIN

If you have not already heard, I am pleased to share that starting on November 7, our worship services will transition to indoors. We will continue to offer a livestreamed, online way to attend this service as well. This will be on our Youtube channel, just as it has been. For those who will be attending online, we ask that you please register via Realm for our services—you can find a link to register on page 2. The primary reason for this is to be able to inform people if we later learn that a person who attended is now COVID positive. We are, of course, going to maintain precautions intended to limit any spread of COVID—masking, distancing, and implementing mitigations around singing and communion. In the case of singing, we will continue to enjoy choral music from our fully-vaccinated choir and musical staff. For congregational singing we will be singing our closing hymns all together. We will also continue to offer morning programming for all ages. Adult Ed classes will continue and are being held in Centennial Hall, church school will be held weekly as well, and other programs will be offered, too. More details about all of that will best be found in your weekly e-blast.

I am hopeful that in the coming months vaccines will become readily available for all age-groups, including young children. This, in turn, will hopefully prevent any further dangerous surges of infection. This pandemic has taught me to be present each day, and I am so grateful for the chance to gather indoors again. I do so love the pace and energy of a Sunday at church—children's voices around every corner, conversations between members catching up on life, the organ booming out to the glory of God, the choir rehearsing in the sanctuary, the sunlight through the windows. I am looking forward to this so much.

First United Nursery Open Starting Nov. 7

The First United Nursery will be open for youngest children starting November 7. The nursery will open at 9:30 a.m. and remain open until 12:15 p.m. Our caregivers will be masked, and we will collect and sanitize all toys used during the session. Children are always welcome (and encouraged!) to be with us in worship, but we also offer the nursery for parents who wish to attend Parenting Conversations or Adult Education, or who need a respite during worship.

Chapel Prayer Returns

Chapel Prayer returns to the Chapel on November 7 for anyone seeking space for quiet prayer and conversation. Deacons will be available for approximately a half hour following worship for private prayer and counsel.

At our monthly meeting on October 19, the Council began its consideration of a proposal by the Leo Latz team for capital campaign preparation. The Council provided feedback to the team and will discuss an updated proposal at its next meeting.

John and Lydia reported on the protocols for returning to indoor worship and Church school as hoped on November 7 (assuming continued decline in COVID numbers).

Last, but not least, the Council recognized John's impressive progress on goals for this past year, applauded his dedication and perseverance, and looked ahead to goals for the coming year.

Moderator, Church Council

Moderator's Report

Greetings with highlights of meetings convened by your Church Council in October.

Congregational Meeting

Thanks to the many Church members who attended the Congregational Meeting on October 10, we had a quorum to amend the Church's Constitution with the statements of our purpose and covenant that many had a hand in refreshing.

An overview of the operating budget for Fiscal Year 2022 was presented by Susan Macaulay, chair of the Finance Team, and the congregation's approval of the budget followed.

In recognition of Pastor Appreciation Month, Marteki Reed, Vice-Moderator, and Len Palombi, Co-Chair of the Board of Deacons, conveyed thanks to John Edgerton, Lydia Mulkey, Alicia Reese, and Beth Dickerson, and we enjoyed watching them open and display gifts of beautiful quilts handmade by Joan Lennie, Teri Omert, Kathy Pederson, Weeks Ringle, Priscilla and Don Sibley, and Pam Wiese.

In closing, we thanked God for the gifts of our wonderful ministry team with the hymn "Now Thank We All Our God," offered (via recording) by our Church Choir.

Council Meetings

The Council met in special session with the Rev. Ally Vertigan, who is pursuing Board Certification with the Association of Professional Chaplains. Ally is an ordained pastor with the UCC, currently a staff chaplain at Rush Oak Park Hospital, and an active member of our Church. The Council was pleased to endorse Ally's application.

We Did It – Again!!

It is with equal amounts of awe and grateful thanks that the Housing Justice Team is delighted to report that you have met the challenge! First United has once again successfully provided needed household goods and supplies (or the cash to buy these items) to furnish five homes for people or families moving from the streets, shelters, or The Write Inn to permanent housing complete with new fluffy towels, a fully-equipped kitchen, personal items such as toothpaste, shampoo and hand lotion, as well as a TV (and, yes, cleaning equipment and supplies) and tons of other wonderful things. Families will be able to go to sleep at night in beds with clean sheets and get up in the morning to make coffee and have mugs to put it in.

Thanks be to God for the ability and generosity of our congregation to help our neighbors in need and for this wonderful opportunity to live into our pledge to move from Words to Witness and from Charity to Change.

PEACE CORNER: THE UCC AND PEACE

The Just Peace Church vision is a hallmark of the United Church of Christ's theological identity. For 30 years, the Just Peace Church Pronouncement has inspired a grassroots movement of UCC congregations committed to corporately naming and boldly proclaiming a public identity as a justice-doing, peace-seeking church. The Just Peace Pronouncement articulated the UCC position on war and peace that is distinct from other approaches such as crusade, pacifism, or "just war." Grounded in UCC polity and covenantal theology, the position focuses attention on alleviating systemic injustice of all types using non-violence, and calls us to offer the message, grounded in the hope of reconciliation in Jesus, that "peace is possible."

November Fourth Sunday Offering: Beyond Hunger

Each month, all undesignated money donated on the fourth Sunday goes to a specific beneficiary supported by First United. This month's Fourth Sunday Offering on November 28 will go to Beyond Hunger, which is housed in the church building itself and provides hunger relief in our community, giving assistance to 15,000 families each year. Besides food, the agency offers nutrition and health education, healthy cooking classes, and counseling for clients about benefits. You can learn more about Beyond Hunger, one of First United's mission partners, at the group's website.

Dinner & a Movie

Our next Dinner and a Movie will be Friday, November 12 and will feature the film "Testament of Youth." In this adaptation of her World War I memoir, smart and ambitious Vera Brittain breaks free of her conservative home life to attend Oxford University, but news of war soon brings her studies and a blossoming romance to a halt. Our COVID protocols still prevent us from enjoying dinner together, but we hope you will still join us for the feature film! The doors will open around 6:30 and we'll start at 7 p.m. Notify Liz Swan (708-567-3490 or easwan@gmail.com) to sign up.

We lift up the prayers that have been shared in worship.

For the wider world:

- Peace, justice, equality, and reconciliation
- Those who are suffering or in need

For those in our midst:

- Nadia Alsaad recovering from emergency back surgery
- Bill Chin and family grieving his mother and brother
- Clara Kearley and family mourning the death of her two brothers, Alejandro and Rafael
- Lee and Mary Lou Anderson as they grieve several good camping friends

For the joys in our lives:

- Wonderful folks in our congregation who are willing to share their musical talents with us in worship
- Ted Desportes continues to recover at home
- Evan Saliny received good news from the Mayo Clinic
- Resuming in-person, livestreamed worship
