2026 National Tournament Season a Success!

Another successful national tournament season has ended!

As the Canadian Golf Superintendents Association (CGSA) celebrated its 60th Anniversary, the 2026 CGSA National Tournament Recognition Program kicked off in May with our first presentation at the 56th PGA Assistants' Championship of Canada, presented by Callaway Golf, in Ontario. The program wrapped up in October with our final presentation at the 51st PGA Head Professional Championship of Canada, presented by Callaway Golf, and the 2nd PGA Head Teaching Professional Championship of Canada, both held in British Columbia.

Throughout the season, the Canadian Golf Superintendents Association (CGSA) proudly recognized 26 members for hosting national championships and events across the country. To explore member profiles and photos from these events, including the RBC Canadian Open and CPKC Women's Open, click here.

Representing more than 1,000 golf course management professionals nationwide, the CGSA is dedicated to supporting members in the art and science of golf course management and serving as the leading authority and advocate for golf course superintendents in Canada.

As part of this commitment, the CGSA National Tournament Recognition Program celebrates members who host prestigious national championships, recognizing their expertise, dedication, and contributions to exceptional course conditioning and championship preparation.

Golf course superintendents play a critical role in the success of every tournament. Although much of their work takes place behind the scenes, its impact is visible on every hole. Their knowledge, leadership, and countless hours of preparation help ensure outstanding, fair, and consistent playing conditions for competitors.

These recognitions and the photos capturing each occasion would not have been possible without the generous support and collaboration of Golf Canada, the PGA of Canada, and PGA TOUR Americas. The CGSA extends its sincere thanks to these organizations for their continued partnership and support in celebrating the vital contributions of golf course superintendents across Canada.

Congratulations to all 26 members recognized throughout the 2026 season and thank you for your outstanding contributions to the game!
