

Accredited Golf Superintendent™ Program

The Canadian Golf Superintendents Association (CGSA) is pleased to announce that Dustin How recently certified as an 'Accredited Golf Superintendent™' (AGS®) by the CGSA. In achieving this designation, Mr. How joins an elite group of golf course managers across the country that has successfully met the standards established by our profession to achieve this honour.

The CGSA Accreditation Program requires Dustin How to recertify every five years to ensure that he is retaining the skills needed by an Accredited Golf Superintendent™. Dustin's peers are very cognizant of the fact that he has now proven himself to be deserving of this professional recognition.

"I have been a part of Southwood Golf and Country Club since 2009 and the Superintendent since 2012 and as such have had the opportunity to be a part of the development of the club since construction. I have also worked at Osprey Meadows at Tamarack Resort, Americas Best New Golf Course 2006, and Greywolf Golf Course. Growing up in Swan River Manitoba playing and working on the golf course is where my passion for this industry began," Said Dustin.

The Canadian Golf Superintendents Association is a society of approximately 1,000 members which is committed to excellence in golf course management and environmental responsibility through the continuing professional development of its members.
