

Co-Op Bank Welcomes New President with Deep Community Roots, Gregg Levante

PITTSFIELD, MA — Pittsfield Cooperative Bank (Co-Op Bank), a financial institution deeply committed to local roots, progress, and leadership, is proud to announce the appointment of Gregg Levante as its new President. A lifelong resident of Berkshire County, Levante brings not only a wealth of banking experience but a profound understanding of the community's needs, values, and aspirations.

“Gregg embodies everything we stand for, dedication to serving others, a strong commitment to leadership development, and a belief in the power of connection,” said Co-Op Bank CEO Mike Daly.

Levante has more than 15 years of experience in the banking industry, previously holding leadership roles in commercial lending at Berkshire Bank and NBT Bank, known for championing employee development and economic growth. He will now lead the Co-Op's strategic initiatives focused on advancing financial prosperity, strengthening local small businesses, and investing in the future of banking.

“I'm honored to step into this role,” said Levante. “This community gave me my start, and I'm committed to ensuring the Co-Op continues to be a place where local people and businesses grow together.”

Under Levante's leadership, the Co-Op will continue to invest in community-first programs, continue the advancement of its digital banking capabilities, and empower team members to lead with purpose.
