One of our favorite Northwest Christian School traditions is the Red Letter Challenge. As part of this tradition, you and your student are invited to establish the discipline of daily time in God's Word as you follow a simple Bible reading guide. Following this schedule, you will be joining Mr. Brown, Mrs. Underwood, Mr. G, and many other Crusaders as we read through the Gospels together.

To be sure, reading God's word daily is its own reward but as we first seek to establish this discipline in young lives, it can be fun to establish incentives as extrinsic reminders of those intrinsic rewards. Towards that end, every elementary student that turns in an up-to-date Red Letter reading form on Monday, November 28th will enjoy fresh-baked chocolate chip cookies and ice cream during lunch on Wednesday, November 30th. As well, during chapel on November 30th, we will draw names and twenty students will join Mr. Brown, Mrs. Underwood, and Mr. G for a free trip to Scoopwells!
