Welcome, Gary Moreau

Gary Moreau was born and raised in Columbia and attended the University High Lab School operated by Mizzou. He is an alum of Mizzou as well, class of 1969. Gary spent four years in the United States Army serving in Germany. He earned his Master of Science in Wildlife Science at Utah State University and used that in his career field working for the USDA Natural Resources Service in Utah and Minnesota before retiring in 2002.

Gary started as a volunteer at PET, which is now Mobility Worldwide. After three trips to Guatemala, Gary became more active at Mobility, including traveling to Nicaragua, Ivory Coast, and Kenya. He has been the executive director of Mobility Worldwide in Columbia for 12 years.
