Gerber Products Company Announces Voluntary Recall of Limited Batches of Arrowroot Biscuits Out of an Abundance of Caution Due to Potential Presence of Foreign Material Following Supplier Recall

January 26, 2026

Dear Valued Customer:

Gerber Products Company is initiating a voluntary recall of limited batches of Gerber® Arrowroot Biscuits out of an abundance of caution due to the potential presence of soft plastic and/or paper pieces that should not be consumed. The material comes from an arrowroot flour supplier which informed us of a recall. We are no longer working with the flour supplier.

This recall is isolated to limited batches of Gerber® Arrowroot Biscuits 5.5oz products produced between July 2025 and September 2025. In the U.S., this recall is nationwide.

No other Gerber® products are impacted by this recall.

Batch codes can be identified on the back of the product packaging. Please utilize reference images below and look for the 10-digit batch code prior to the best before date.

Consumers who may have purchased impacted Gerber® Arrowroot Biscuits (5.5 oz) should not feed this product to their child and can return the product to the retailer where it was purchased to receive a refund.

While no illnesses or injuries have been reported, we are acting out of an abundance of caution following a recall from the supplier. We are working closely with the U.S. Food & Drug Administration (FDA) and will cooperate fully throughout their review.

Please examine your inventory and destroy product subject to recall and document with a Certificate of Destruction (COD). In addition, if you have further distributed this product, please identify your customers and notify them at once of this product recall. Your notification to your customers may be enhanced by including a copy of this recall notification letter.

Any partial cases and store inventory should be destroyed and documented with a COD. Consumers will be directed to return the products to the place of purchase for a refund.

We are asking you to complete the following enclosed form and email it to your Nestlé Sales Representative as soon as possible to ensure all products are off shelves.

If you have any questions, please contact your Nestlé Sales Representative.

Sincerely,

Lee Luiso
