

Meet Jane and Jim Haefner

Jane has been a life time member of Lutheran churches in New York and Texas. She has served on worship & music committees, fellowship committees as well as serving in the roles of communion assistant, assisting minister, lector, usher, altar guild, Stephen Ministry, and as a eucharistic minister. Jane grew up in Webster in a family of five. Her career began with Delco Products, then Xerox in Webster/Henrietta, transferring to Dallas in 1977. She also worked for Apple Computer and EDS in Dallas. She transferred back to Rochester in 1994 working on the Xerox contract with EDS. She retired early but then went back to the University of Rochester for another ten years where she really retired in 2012. She is married to her husband Jim and lives in Fairport on the historic Erie Canal.

Jim has been a life time member of Lutheran churches in Wisconsin and New York. He has served on fellowship committees and served in the roles of usher, eucharistic minister, Barnabas Ministry, and Sunday Dinner Ministry. Jim grew up in Wisconsin in a family of six. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin and served in the Navy for 23 years – retiring as a Commander. He went to work for the State of Wisconsin as a civil engineer and retired in 1993. He moved to Fairport in 1997. He is married to his wife Jane and lives in Fairport on the historic Erie Canal.