JESUS TAUGHT

In Mark 4:2-9, Jesus gives us crystal clear perspective on being a seed planter — i.e., sharing our faith. In this simple parable, we are the farmer:

² He taught them many things by parables, and in his teaching said:
³ “Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed. ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. ⁶But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which ⁸grew up and choked the plants, so that they did not bear grain. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up, grew and produced a crop, some multiplying thirty, some sixty, some a hundred times.” ⁹ Then Jesus said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.”
(New International Version)

In Jesus' parable, the farmer's responsibility was not to make the crop grow.

The responsibility was to scatter the seeds.

Have You Ever ...

- Wanted to share your faith but didn't really know how?
- Felt a bit guilty, frustrated, or sad for not sharing your faith?
- Thought, "I'm not confident sharing my Christian faith — but I should be"?
- Wanted an unthreatening way to share your Christian faith?

If so, you are like approximately 95 percent of adult Christians.

A while ago, I asked my former pastor, Dr. G. Richard Lobs III, retired pastor of six evangelical congregations, "What percentage of Christian adults are comfortable sharing their Christian faith?" His answer:

"My best guesstimate would be that approximately five percent of the adult Christians I've worked with over my 45 years of ministry were confident in sharing their Christian faith — 95 percent were not!"

About 95 percent of the Body of Christ is uncomfortable with sharing their personal faith in any way, with anyone, at any time! I have to admit, I'm part of the 95 percent. I've only shared my faith verbally a very few times in over 60 years of Christian life.

Some reasons why we Christians do not share our Christian faith:

We are uncomfortable with ...

- Rejection.
- Arguments.
- Difficult questions.
- Being seen as preachy.
- Being labeled "religious fanatics."
- Our lack of ability to communicate clearly.

I am in the 95 percent, but I have found a way of sharing my Christian faith with 100 percent confidence!

Together, we can help each person we know in the 95 percent group become 100 percent confident as a seed planter!

On the parking-garage level of our seven-story condominium building, beside the elevator, stands a small shelf known as the "free shelf." You can take or leave anything there — free. One day, I got the idea of leaving a book that explains the plan on salvation, so anyone could take it home free. I was planting a seed.

Soon, dozens of books were gone, one at a time — books containing the "plan of salvation" moving hand to hand, mind to mind, heart to heart, with God guiding. Before leaving each book, I prayed that a person seeking God for whatever reason (at this exact time in their life) would pick up the free book.

Not one person saw me leave the first 30 books. No one cared how I looked. No one asked me a single question. Leaving each and every book was exciting — and fulfilling. I had discovered a way of sharing God's plan on salvation (my faith) with total confidence.

A few evenings later, Cheryl and I were having dinner with our friends Doug and Christi Napier. I shared the fulfillment I experienced sharing my Christian faith in this very simple way. Christi has a problem with her vocal cords; she has had 68 surgeries on her vocal cords and still speaks in a whisper. She softly told us, "I leave Christian books as well. I leave them in the beauty salon, the doctor's office, or any place I happen to be. The person picking up the book assumes it was left by mistake — but it was left on purpose!"

Sharing your faith in this way does not require:

- A professional image.
- Physical fitness.
- Public speaking ability.
- Social confidence.
- A seminary degree.

LEAVE, GIVE, PRAY

LEAVE

When you leave such a book, you share your Christian faith (i.e., plant a seed) with any person who picks it up and reads it. The reader's response is between the reader and God.

Your pastor's best book may be a great book to leave.

Your all-time favorite book may be a great book to leave.

My book DECADE by DECADE might be a great book to leave.

GIVE

Perhaps you have been praying for a specific friend but haven't found the exact right time or just the right words for approaching them. Try giving them a book (plant a seed). When you give your friend a book that contains the plan of salvation, you share your faith (plant a seed) with your friend. Their response is between them and God.

PRAY

There has to be a season of gardening and planting before any harvest. Take a seed, plant it, and pray about the harvest for God's kingdom. Anyone who believes can plant a seed. Pray to God to send and grow His harvest.

Leave a book (plant a seed) anywhere:

- Free shelves.
- Gyms.
- Nursing homes.
- Professional offices (e.g., attorneys, dentists, doctors, psychologists).
- Park benches.
- Public transportation (airplanes/airports, buses, trains).
- Restaurants.
- Shops (e.g., barbershops, beauty salons, shoe repair shops).
- Stadiums.
- Waiting rooms.
- Anywhere in your world!

"Remember, eternity is not

A year,
10 years,
100 years."

Regardless of how you imagine heaven or hell, I think we agree that both heaven and hell are for eternity! Jesus came to provide a way for us to have a personal relationship with our Heavenly Father. Through Him we receive the gifts of abundant life now and life with Him for all eternity.
