Department Launches Principal Learning Network

The New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) is pleased to announce the creation of a statewide Principal Learning Network, a free, year-long professional learning experience designed for new and experienced K-12 school principals. The purpose of the Principal Learning Network is to provide collaborative and supportive experiences in which principals can share promising practices, seek guidance, and gain access to resources to foster equity in schools. The program includes the following components:

- Two-day Summer Institute
- Four Principal Learning Network Meetings (virtual/in-person)
- Online Professional Learning Community
- Access to Leadership Partners
- Book Discussions
- Principal Learning Network Celebration.

During the two-day Summer Institute, participants will have the opportunity to hear from a nationally recognized speaker regarding Leadership in an Era of Equity. In addition, participants will be able to select four breakout sessions to engage in discussions with other principals throughout the state involving topics that are critical to the work of principals. A tentative agenda is provided below. As part of the Principal Learning Network, participants will select an area of professional growth and design an individual Principal Learning Network Plan. Throughout the year, participants will be able to engage in discussions and receive feedback from other principals in addition to having opportunities to collaborate with Leadership Partners and consult with NJDOE staff in support of their Principal Learning Network Plan.

The Principal Learning Network Summer Institute will be held at The College of New Jersey on July 24, 2018 and July 25, 2018 from 8:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Participation is expected in all aspects of the Principal Learning Network, including the two-day Summer Institute, the Principal Learning Network meetings (virtually/in-person), and the Online Professional Learning Community. There is no cost to participate in the Principal Learning Network. However, space is limited; therefore, participants are encouraged to register as soon as possible. Deadline for registration is July 10, 2018. As part of the registration process, participants will be asked to select the breakout sessions they would like to attend from topics such as equity and cultural responsiveness, digital leadership, well-rounded education (including STEM), and social-emotional learning.
