

ARTS ED NJ PROFESSIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

SPRING 2022

Cultivating Conditions for SEL and Culturally Responsive Arts Education

Student artists can develop a deep sense of identity, belonging, and agency when social emotional learning is intentionally embedded into arts education. This 90-minute workshop will offer arts educators and an opportunity to self-assess readiness to embed social emotional learning into arts programs and teaching practices that are rooted in culturally responsive arts education. Learn from practitioners as you prepare to cultivate conditions for social emotional learning and culturally responsive arts education.

This workshop will be presented by Latasha Casterlow-Lalla, Supervisor of Visual & Performing Arts, Passaic Public Schools

Fee: $75

Select a Date to Register:

➔ March 1st 1:30-3pm ET

Exploring 2020 NJSLV-VPA Part 2: A Closer Look

As districts prepare to implement the 2020 NJSLV-VPA, arts educators throughout the state have the opportunity to view the learning standards from a new lens. Join us for this interactive session. The format will support peer-to-peer learning and address many common questions and discipline-specific special topics.

This workshop will be presented by members of the NJSLV-VPA writing teams.

Fee: FREE

Select a Date to Register:

➔ March 10th 1-3pm ET

➔ March 22 1-3pm ET

➔ April 28 1-3pm ET

