

Charting Your Course for the New Year

Patty Block, The Block Group

Patty specializes in advising women business owners on growth strategies, bringing a unique perspective to the complex issues they confront.

Patty empowers women owners who are seeking balance and prosperity in their lives, shifting the way they think, with a strategic and intentional focus.

In building her company, Patty has leveraged her business experience as a former political consultant and lobbyist, as well as leading Development and Operations efforts for The Awty International School in Houston.

Patty holds an advanced degree from the University of Texas at Austin. She established her company in 2006, turning roadblocks into building blocks for women-owned businesses.
