

Join the Exploratorium Teacher Institute's

California Secondary Science Teacher Leader Network

Exploratorium | Pier 15 | San Francisco, CA

A program for California middle and high school teacher-leaders who provide professional support for NGSS to other science teachers.

Join the Network!

Applications are now open for the Teacher Leader Network Introductory Institute

July 29 - August 2, 2019

Join our collaborative community of Teacher Leaders from all over California. Spend a week in San Francisco engaging as a learner in activities designed to deepen your science understanding and classroom practice, and develop effective supports for CA NGSS aligned professional development for your school, district, or county.

The Exploratorium will provide a travel allowance, meals, and lodging for the week. There is no fee to attend. As part of the Teacher Leader Network, you'll have access to additional professional development and networking opportunities throughout the year.

Apply online! <https://tinyurl.com/TLSummer19>

Please apply by March 10, 2019. Applicants will be notified of acceptance by March 18.
