

Cornelius Police Department

Distinguished Service Award

Presented to

Jeffrey Connors

The Distinguished Service Award is intended to recognize exemplary service to the department and may be presented to any member for contributions to difficult police programs, assignments, projects, or other situations, such contributions being of a high degree of professional excellence; or for exemplary service of an extended nature which brings unusual credit or honor to the department.

February 13, 2003 – March 1, 2023