The Rev. Dr. Marlowe V.N. Washington,
Pastor

YOUTH PASTOR

The Pastor's Study in conjunction with the Administrative Council of Seneca United Methodist Church is seeking candidates for a part-time (10 hours per week) youth pastor. Candidates should have a solid background and expertise in children and adolescent development or related field with a passion of helping youth love Jesus more. In addition to the relational skill required, this position also requires candidates with strong coordinating and planning skillset, thematic focus, communication strategist to parents, congregation, various ministries of the church, church leadership, and the external community. This person must be available for key administrative meetings with a keen focus on youth and youth ministry development.

In addition to having a strong Christian commitment, candidates must have a strong relationship with Christ, influenced by the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, and a keen awareness of the Holy Scriptures. We seek a person who generates new ideas and innovation capable of creating a positive youth culture and aspiring movement. Other qualifications include, a minimum of three-five years of increasingly responsible youth ministry or Christian Education service, a degree in a relevant field of study; at a minimum, an upperclassman in college, and administrative experience is necessary. This position must also support the mission of the church and its new strategic plan, known as THE OFFER. Interested persons should email current cover letter, resume, and three professional references to Search Committee Chair, Staff Parish Relations Committee of Seneca United Methodist Church, senecaumc@seneca-umc.org.
