

Tom Bushka is the current President and Director of League Operations for the West Suburban Baseball League (WSBL), in his tenth term. He has been instrumental in building the league to its current membership of over 350 teams. He has served in a leadership capacity in the WSBL for over 14 years, since the inception of the league. He is the former four term President of the Oak Brook Outlaws and a long-time youth baseball coach, coaching his son Bret throughout his youth playing years. Bret was a standout baseball and football player at Glenbard East and is currently a quarterback at Butler University. Tom is highly regarded among his peers of league officials and youth baseball coaches and will be leading our coaches as the Director of Coaching for Illinois Premier.
