This heart-wrenching book is based on one of America's most notorious real-life scandals—in which Georgia Tann, director of a Memphis-based adoption organization, kidnapped and sold poor children to wealthy families all over the country. The story follows 12-year-old Rill Foss in 1839 as she struggles to keep her four brothers and sisters together after they have been taken from their home when their father and mother are away.

The story also takes us to present day Aiken, South Carolina. Avery Stafford, young woman born to wealth, has a chance encounter that causes her to explore her family's history—where she discovers a dark truth.

All are welcome to join our discussions.
