Two Saved

While passing out some Bibles I came across two guys sitting in the grass. I approached them and asked them if they wanted a Bible. The first guy said, without hesitation, YES! So I gave both of them a Bible. I have them write their names on the inside cover so that it might deter them from selling it to someone, which could get me in trouble. Also it lets me know what their names are. After they wrote their names inside I asked the first guy, "if you were to die today do you know where you will spend eternity?" He immediately responded, laughingly, "I would go to hell!" He is the FIRST person since we've been here to answer that way! I then responded, "it's really not funny" He stopped laughing. I asked him if he knew what Jesus Christ did for him, he actually said "NO" So, to make a long story short, I shared with him the precious Gospel of Jesus Christ. He said he was ready to accept Jesus as his personal Savior. We bowed our heads and prayed together, and he accepted Jesus Christ into his heart and life. The second guy followed suit! (although he prayed silently). Both of them now have the precious Word of God in their possession! Their names are Louie and Paquito!

Bibles

We finally got our two shipments of Bibles. The West family, from Pine Bluff AR, and Rose Lawn MBC in Tulsa, OK, both sent us a shipment. I want to write in this report just how hard it is to get a shipment of Bibles out of the P.O. "prison!" One can't just go and pick them up anymore. First I had to get a "Duty Free" letter from the VCC (Vanuatu Christian Counsel), then, I had to get a customs clearance from two separate Customs offices, after that, I had to hire a "Clearing Agent" to fill out the proper documents so I can get "Bibles" I now have the shipments of Bibles in my possession! PTL! Maggie prints and inserts tracts into the Bibles!

Baby Dedication

Baby dedications are a big thing here in the south pacific. They keep the babies inside for one month and then they can bring them to church. I have the privilege of giving the devotional for most of these dedications. I always put the responsibility of the dedication onto the parents. We had two babies dedicated this month.

Mamma's Day

Although it's not a national holiday, they celebrate what's called Mamma's Day. They hold a celebration in one of the big open spaces here in Vila. I was called by one of the Pastors here (Pastor Kavi of Fatukuru M.B.C.) and invited me to give a devotion at their ladies auxiliary meeting there at the park. I wasn't sure what to expect seeing I've never been to one of these before. Come to find out Fatukuru was the chosen church to give the closing devotional for the whole celebration. It was about 6:30 pm and pitch dark outside. There were close to 150 people still there. I got to preach the gospel (In English) up on a main stage that was all lit up to all that were present. It was a true blessing to be asked!
