

Saved by Beauty Dostoevsky and America

A Painting Exhibition dedicated to Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky

Saturday, September 24, 2022 — 3 p.m. - 8 p.m.

3:00 p.m. Visit of Archbishop Kyrill and special guests

4:00 p.m. Private tour with Bishop Maxim

6:00 p.m. Special Presentation on Dostoevsky, Hors d'Oeuvres and Drinks, Live Music, Silent Auction, etc.

This exhibition gives visual expression to characters and existential and moral themes from the novels of Fyodor Dostoevsky through a variety of painting styles.

The painters of the visual group "OCHRA" have attempted to visually express this world of hopeless, dark heroes and others, positive heroes, who have experienced repentance.

Russian Center of San Francisco

Russian Center of San Francisco
Grand Ballroom/Auditorium & Theater
2450 Sutter St, San Francisco, CA 94115

FREE ADMISSION • For more information contact Fr. Djurica Gordic 415 215-4372

The Russian Center of San Francisco was founded in 1939 by Russian immigrants as a focal point for the preservation of their rich cultural heritage.