OF

JOHN S. BRADFIELD SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE ONE

The name of the Corporation is JOHN S. BRADFIELD SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION (the “Corporation”).

ARTICLE TWO

The Corporation is a nonprofit corporation.

ARTICLE THREE

The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE FOUR

The Corporation is organized exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the “Code”) and will be operated solely to (i) further the education of children in the Highland Park Independent School District (the “HPISD”), with an emphasis on children enrolled in the John S. Bradfield Elementary School (the “School”), (ii) support and accomplish the educational purposes of the School and the HPISD; (iii) in the discretion of the Board of Directors, support programs of the School and the HPISD, including (without limitation) the provision of financial support, volunteer management, and the direct operation of programs for the benefit of the School and/or the HPISD; and (iv) do all things necessary for and incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes and goals of the Corporation.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article Four, the Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity, that would invalidate its status (1) as a corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (2) as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a), and 2522(a) of the Code.

ARTICLE FIVE

ARTICLE NINE

The power to alter, amend, repeal, replace, or restate the Bylaws and the Certificate of Formation shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE TEN

In the event of the winding up and termination of this Corporation, or in the event it shall cease to carry out the objects and purposes herein set forth, all the business, property, and assets of the Corporation shall go and be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as the directors of this Corporation may select and designate; and in no event shall any of the said assets or property, in the event of winding up and termination, go or be distributed to any persons, either for the reimbursement of any sum subscribed, donated, or contributed by such persons, or for any other such purpose.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

1. The Corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit nor shall it have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends. The balance, if any, of all money and other assets received by the Corporation from its operations, after the payment in full of all debts and obligations of the Corporation of whatsoever kind and nature, shall be used and distributed exclusively for carrying out only the purposes of the Corporation as particularly set forth in Article Four hereof.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any provision of this Certificate of Formation or the Bylaws of the Corporation, if this Corporation is ever determined to be a private foundation, as defined in Section 509 of the Code, it shall not act, operate, or engage in any transaction which would subject the Corporation or any other persons to a tax imposed by Sections 4941 to 4945 of the Code.

3. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Four hereof.

4. No substantial part of the activities (except as permitted pursuant to the Code) of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state, or local laws.

5. The Corporation shall not operate for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.
