What is The Arab American Cultural & Community Center Scholarship Program?

The Arab-American Cultural & Community Center Scholarship is awarded through partnerships and funds raised by the community and is designed to increase opportunities of Arab American student in all fields of study. The ACC will be working in partnership with the Arab American Education Foundation, The Arab American Medical Association Houston Chapter, leading companies and others. The scholarship will be awarded to cover educational expenses on a per semester basis directly to the college or university. The recipient may use the scholarship toward an Associate's degree or a Bachelor's degree.

Who is eligible to apply?

New college students, Current Community College or University students may apply. Students should have a minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher. Preference will be given to students who plan to or currently attend a college or university that is located in the Greater Houston area - although this is not a requirement- and plan to complete their associate's or bachelor's degree in a timely manner.

What is expected of an applicant?

- This is a one-time scholarship per calendar year. Applicants are encouraged to apply every year for the Scholarship.
- Applicant must be either currently attending or accepted to an accredited college in the Greater Houston with a declared major. Students may attend a community college and then transfer to any University.
- The stipend for each semester must first be used to cover the cost of tuition, books, and fees. The remainder may be used for other related expenses, including but not limited to, living expenses such as housing, food, and transportation.
- Applicant must remain a full-time student by completing 12 or more credit hours each semester.
- Applicant must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 each semester.
- The scholarship cannot be used for more than a total of twelve semesters.
- Applicant must volunteer at the Arab American Cultural Center for at least 10 hours during the semester in which the scholarship is awarded.
