Mason City Family YMCA announces Kim Pang as new President & CEO

Kim Pang brings extensive experience in Community and Economic Development, as well as Service.

Kim Pang will begin his tenure as the new President & CEO effective December 1, 2018.

The YMCA of Mason City, announced today that Kim Pang will serve as the new President and Chief Executive Officer, effective December 1, 2018. He will succeed Liz Conley, who has served as president and CEO for the last 12 years and whom left at the beginning of July, as previously announced.

Kim Pang most recently served as the Vice President and General Manager of Diamond Jo Casino in Northwood Iowa. Mr. Pang has more than 20 years of experience in operational leadership, hospitality and gaming services. His impressive track record of Community Service, Partnership Development and Operational Performance, as well as his commitment to improving North Iowa make him an ideal choice to lead the YMCA of Mason City.

"We are privileged to welcome Kim Pang to the YMCA," said Tim Putnam, Chair of the Board of Directors of the Mason City Family YMCA. "Kim is an energetic, thoughtful leader with an unparalleled commitment to community and economic development. He's oversaw visionary projects in both the public and non-profit sectors. We know that Kim will provide the leadership to guide the Y as it continues its mission of ensuring that all North Iowa residents have the opportunity to learn, grow and thrive."

"I am grateful for the opportunity to lead an organization that has such a meaningful impact on the lives of the residents of North Iowa," said Kim Pang. "The Mason City Family YMCA has consistently found innovative ways to address critical social needs in North Iowa and I look forward to continuing that vital work. As a longstanding member of the Mason City YMCA, I know well the vitality and warmth the YMCA brings to this community"

The Mason City Family YMCA is, and always will be, dedicated to building healthy, confident, connected and secure children, adults, families and communities. With a focus on youth development, healthy living and social responsibility, the Y nurtures the potential of every
