School Culture and Climate Initiative - How We Partner with Schools

The School Culture and Climate Initiative:

- Based at the Center for Human and Social Development at Saint Elizabeth University in Morristown
- Working with schools for the last ten years in the realm of school climate improvement and SEL implementation
- Nationally recognized and award-winning programs and resources
- Also housed at the Center is the Academy for Social-emotional Learning in Schools

How We Partner with Schools

- Professional development on topics such as trauma-sensitive classrooms, equity and cultural competence, social and emotional learning, adult self-care and more.
- Partnership and guidance through our school climate assessment and improvement process (SCAIP).
- SEL coaching to support teacher implementation of practices that meet the needs of the whole child.
- Assessment tools including the Equity and Inclusion Survey, Staff, Students and Parent Emotional Well-Being Survey, and the School Culture and Climate Assessment Survey.
- Connection and collaboration with other local educators who can support your efforts and share ideas, solutions and strategies.

Customized co-created support for 2023-24 academic year
