

Join us for Our In-Person Social Studies Conference!

Register today

for the Illinois Council for the Social Studies
Fall Conference!

Friday, October 14, 2022

Harper College in Palatine, IL.

With so much focus on the work we do as social studies professionals, engagement in collegial dialogue is becoming more important than ever. Join your colleagues for engaging sessions that explore the present and future directions of professional social studies education. Session topics include:

*Approaches to Controversial Social Studies Topics

*Disciplinary Literacy in the Social Studies Classroom

*Making the Case for Instructional Time in Elementary Social Studies

*Teaching Content in the Standards-Based Classroom

*School/Museum Partnerships

...and More!

*Asian-American History and the Teaching Equitable Asian American Community History (TEAACH) Act

The Keynote Lunch speaker is nationally recognized civics education advocate Mary-Ellen Daneels, Director of the Illinois Civics Hub and Illinois Democracy School Network.

Mary Ellen will be presenting "The Design Challenges of Educating for American Democracy"

Please join your colleagues at the Illinois Council for the Social Studies for a day of engaging sessions on important topics.

Click here to Register today!