

FREE ENERGY CODE TRAINING

*Earn while you learn! Eligible for ICC Preferred Provider Credits.

OPEN TO:

INSPECTORS BUILDERS
CONTRACTORS
TRADESPERSON
INSTALLERS
ARCHITECTS
ENGINEERS

APPROVED COURSES

1. Mini-Split Design and Installation

This course covers concerns and failures seen in the industry and provides attendees with information to properly select equipment according to design and covers the necessary steps for proper installation of mini-split equipment including best practices.

2. The Mysterious Heat Pump

This interactive session addresses the many misconception and practices observed with Heat Pump settings and installation. Discussion topics include set-points, lock-outs, performance data, design, installation, and best practices.

3. 2018 IECC- Manual J, S & D

This course takes a simpler approach to understanding and reviewing Wrightsoft heat load calculations. With separate sections for permit techs, plan reviewers and inspectors, learn what's important and what needs verified. We'll review common complaints and potential solutions.

AT A GLANCE

WHEN?

- September 23rd 8am-12pm

WHERE?

- Twin Falls County P&Z
- 830 Addison Ave.
- Twin Falls, ID. 83301

REGISTER/SCHEDULE

- Registration onsite
- (208) 697-7378
- davidfreelove@yahoo.com

DAVID FREELove

David is the Energy Code Circuit rider with the state of Idaho for several years and supports code adoption, implementation, and enforcement for the State. Previously, Dave worked as the Building Official for the city of Middleton, a residential inspector, plan reviewer, and mechanical inspector in Canyon County.