RIISING 6TH GRADE BOOT CAMP (AUGUST 5)

Rising 6th grade students need to attend boot camp on August 5th from 8:30 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. in room 308 (Mrs. Lersch's room).

Please bring your fully charged laptop. We will check your email and review your checking email daily. You will be assigned your Waggle account for math, online science book, geography book, and IXL.

Please bring all of your school supplies. We will put together your folders and organize them with you. *Don't forget to put your name on all of your supplies and books.

You will receive your lockers and combinations, and you will be responsible for organizing them.

It is essential for students to attend this boot camp, as it will ensure a smooth transition to the first day of school and help us get off to a running start.

Thank you,
Heather Lersch and Judi Duke

"FINDING KIND"

AUGUST 24TH, 2025

LOUISE R. MOORE CENTER FOR PERFORMING ARTS

1400 S. UNIVERSITY BOULEVARD

2:00 P.M.

In 2009, filmmakers Lauren Paul and Molly Thompson embarked on a 10,000-mile cross-country journey of discovery and education, interviewing hundreds of women across America about girl-on-girl bullying.

Paul and Thompson discover, among personal accounts, universal truths about the pressures of being a girl and how the pressures can impact our relationships with other women.

Since 2009, Kind Campaign assemblies have taken place in thousands of schools worldwide.

* Sponsored by St. Luke's Episcopal School Counseling Department *

Please contact Missy Wallace, mwallace@slesmobile.org or

Emily Cumpton, ecumpton@slesmobile.org to RSVP for the number attending.
