WILLIAM BREARLEY HOME

The mountain side location provides guests with views of the Montreat valley and surrounding ridgelines leading into the Town of Black Mountain. Montreat Conference Center activities are within easy walking distance, but the guest lodge is also secluded enough to be a “retreat from the retreat”. The original portion of the home was built in 1912 as lodging for SC ministers and other folks attending early conferences. After 100 Years of service the home still retains the feel of a “quaint country lodge”.

The home features sixteen guestrooms with eight private use hall bathrooms, along with the efficiency unit known as Suite Carolina. The Suite is air conditioned and features a newly renovated bathroom, and kitchen. The home is furnished throughout with many antique pieces along with mission style furnishings in both living rooms that take you back to a simpler, more relaxed time. The home is open March through November and can be made available for group use year-round.

KIRK APARTMENTS

The Kirk apartments are located next to the William Brearley Home. They provide guests with the same great location within Montreat but with more modern accommodations. Each is a one-room unit with heat and air conditioning, private bath and can accommodate four to six persons. All units have a combination of twin or double beds along with sleeper sofas. The upstairs units all feature a small balcony and the lower units have porch areas to take in the view.

Six of the eight units include fully equipped kitchenettes. Two units now offer fully handicap accessible bathrooms and new food prep areas with basic appliances. The apartments are open year-round and are perfect for families, groups, or individuals who want the economy and convenience of these efficiency units. Reservations for extended stays can be accepted during the off season, mid November through February.

Breakfast is available in the main kitchen of the William Brearley Home when there are twelve or more guests. There are plenty of your favorite items to choose from in the buffet style breakfast. Serving hours are generally 7:30 - 9:00 am.

The Patio Kitchen, our guest kitchen, is a fully equipped residential style kitchen that is always open and available for meal or snack preparation. There is dining space for eight in the kitchen with additional seating available in our picnic areas. Gas and charcoal grills are available.
