Organ Dedication Concert

Featuring Organist Michael Hey

Friday, November 6th, 2026

6:30 pm

In 2023, Michael was appointed Director of Music and Organist of Manhattan's historic Marble Collegiate Church. From 2015 to 2023, he served as Associate Director of Music and Organist at Saint Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, where he performed for the sole U.S. visit of Pope Francis. Previously, he was Assistant Organist at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church for five years. A native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mr. Hey is a graduate of The Juilliard School's accelerated five-year program earning both Bachelor and Master of Music degrees in organ performance under Paul Jacobs.

This event is free and open to the public and is sponsored by Kingston Presbyterian Church and Chapel Music Co.

A reception will follow with refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Please join us on Friday, November 6th, 2026 at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary for our organ dedication service and concert. The organ will be dedicated in loving memory of long time director of music Rod McCown, who served as Music Director/Organist for 63 years and 6 choir members, Marianne Burton, Jeannie Floyd, Elizabeth Marsh, Pat Singleton, Dr. John Wilson III, and Mary Wilson, who dedicated so much of their time and talents to the music ministry of Kingston Presbyterian Church.
Dr. Brett Wilson, brother of Dr. John Wilson III and son of Mary Wilson, will play a piano prelude 15 minutes prior to the service. Michael Hey, Music Director/Organist at New York City's historic Marble Collegiate Church will be playing a concert of the finest organ music. Please join us as we dedicate this wonderful instrument above all to the Glory of God. Please invite a friend to join you. We would love to have a packed church for this event.
