

BLACKSTONE RIVER VALLEY VOLUNTEERS-IN-PARKS

SKILLS WORKSHOP SERIES

Learn a new skill, sharpen skills you already have, and open new doors for future volunteer opportunities. Workshops count toward VIP training.

WILDERNESS FIRST AID

Tuesday, February 23 – 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. – On Zoom

GET PREPARED FOR YOUR NEXT OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

If you spend any amount of time in the woods, this is a course you should take!

Join the Rhode Island Division of Fish and Wildlife for a fun and interactive night learning wilderness first aid skills. Gain knowledge to help you provide appropriate and timely treatment and identify ways to improvise and adapt with commonly found field equipment.

Best for ages 12+. This is a non-certification course and will be held on Zoom.

About the Instructor: Dana Kopec, is a Technical Assistant at the RI Division of Fish and Wildlife working for the Hunter Education and Aquatic Resource Education Programs. She is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician with 21 years of experience and enjoys passing along her knowledge to as many people as possible.

Participate in this unique Skills Workshop from the comfort of your own device. RSVP at the link below and you will be signed up to attend the virtual Skills Workshop. You can record your volunteer time under training. Open to the public. Note: registration is limited; reserve your spot early.
