Roots Shabbat Service at 7:00 pm

Join Temple Beth El in welcoming guest speaker

AYELET SHACHAR-EPSTEIN

Turning Personal Tragedy into a Mission of Inclusion

On October 7, 2023, Ayelet Shachar-Epstein's life changed forever. She will share a deeply personal and powerful story, one she shared at the United Nations, about her family's life in Kibbutz Kfar Aza - who they were, how they lived, and what life was like before October 7. She will recount the events of that day, including the heartbreaking loss of her son Netta, and several family and community members.

Ayelet will describe her journey in the aftermath of the tragedy - traveling across Israel, in search of the right way to honor Netta's memory, what she discovered about the nonprofit landscape, and how she ultimately partnered with Jordan River Village, the organization she chose to carry her son's legacy forward.

Ayelet Shachar-Epstein will speak after the service.
Oneg Shabbat to follow.
