TBE LGBTQ PRIDE SHABBAT

Join us for a very special
Kabbalat Shabbat Service
Friday, June 8, 7:30pm

led by Rabbi Hammerman and Cantor Fishman

with musical guest,
Chris Coogan

Featuring Guest Speaker
Dustin Rader
“Translated Stories”

When Dustin was born, his parents thought he was a girl. He struggled with this for much of his childhood and adolescence. He will be here to share his personal story. He will also answer (almost) any question you have about transgender people, their experiences, their families, and how you can help them.

Dustin Rader is a high school English teacher in Canton, CT. He also happens to be transgender.
