

Supportive Housing Virtual Learning Community

The Supportive Housing Virtual Learning Community (VLC) will facilitate learning about long-standing and emerging challenges in Supportive Housing using both interactive learning sessions and an online forum for interaction and engagement among trainers and Learning Community participants.

Target Audience:

Those in leadership positions in Supportive Housing programs and organizations.

The goals of the VLC are to support providers in:

- Gaining a better understanding of their role and the role of landlords in supporting SH
- Learning additional strategies to retain and train staff who will need to adapt to changing work environments
- Mastery of outreach techniques in the contemporary environment
- Recognizing the importance of tenancy skills to supportive housing success and the ability to utilize skills training techniques more effectively

When:

This virtual learning community will meet once a month from September 2022 through November 2022 via Zoom video conferencing on the 2nd Thursday of the month from 2:00 to 3:30 pm ET.

Meeting dates are September 8, October 13, and November 10, 2022.

How to Apply:

If you would like to be considered for participation, please complete the questions using the link below to our online application and submit by Wednesday, August 26, 2022.

You will be notified of acceptance on Thursday, September 1, 2022.
