

Join us for a FREE Train-the-Trainer Session on Fair Housing & Housing Discrimination, Financial Frauds and Scams, and Foreclosure Awareness

Presented by Leila Amirhamzeh, New Jersey Citizen Action
Amanda Smith, New Jersey Citizen Action
Diane McMahon, New Jersey Citizen Action

FEBRUARY WORKSHOP:

Friday, February 15, 2019 (snow date: Thursday, Feb. 21st)

MARCH WORKSHOP:

Friday, March 15, 2019 (snow date: Friday, March 22nd)

10:00am- 3:00pm

Registration begins at 9:30am

Free breakfast and lunch provided

Registration required

New Jersey Citizen Action

625 Broad Street, Suite 270

(2nd floor above Whole Foods)

Newark, NJ 07102

Off street parking in Whole Foods or Military Park parking garages*

- Fair Housing and Housing Discrimination
- Fair Housing Trends, including housing discrimination against immigrants, Muslims, victims of domestic violence, ex-offenders, the LGBTQ community, and people with disabilities.
- Consumer financial protection laws
- Financial frauds and scams
- An update on New Jersey's ongoing foreclosure crisis

These trainings are designed specifically for social service providers, housing counselors at HUD-certified counseling agencies, and other community leaders.

Registration required. Please contact Michelle Maas at 973-643-8800, x210 or email her at michelle@njcitizenaction.org.

NJCA is a HUD-designated fair housing agency. This workshop is supported by funding under a grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

