

List format:

WHO

The TD Charitable Foundation's 19th annual Housing for Everyone grant program is now accepting applications!

WHAT

This year, the Housing for Everyone program will award 36 grants of $200,000 each, totaling $7.2 million, to eligible 501(c)3 organizations that provide resources and solutions to low- and moderate-income individuals and families facing challenges in maintaining homeownership.

WHEN

Applications are open now through 4 p.m. (EST) on Feb. 6, 2025.

WHERE

Qualifying nonprofit organizations operating within TD's footprint and/or Metro Detroit may submit applications online at: <http://www.td.com/housingforeveryone>

WHY

As the U.S. affordable housing crisis continues to grow, the TD Charitable Foundation's Housing for Everyone grant program continues to provide a way for nonprofits to deepen their impact in our communities, making homeownership more equitable and sustainable. This year's theme for the Housing for Everyone program is focused on sustaining homeownership, because we recognize it is important to not only create homeownership opportunities, but to also help individuals and families retain their homes.

Since its inception in 2005, Housing for Everyone has provided more than $56 million to help more than 585 affordable housing initiatives in the U.S. communities TD serves from Maine to Florida and in the Detroit metro area. Learn more about this year's program here and how to apply: Housing for Everyone

+++

Paragraph format:

The TD Charitable Foundation's 19th annual Housing for Everyone grant program is now accepting applications! This year, the Housing for Everyone grant program will award 36 grants of $200,000 each (total of $7.2 million) to eligible 501(c)3 organizations that provide post-purchase resources and solutions to low- and moderate-income individuals and families facing challenges in maintaining homeownership. Qualifying nonprofit organizations can submit their application now through 4 p.m. (EST) on Feb. 6, 2025, online at: <http://www.td.com/housingforeveryone>

TD's Housing for Everyone program supports TD's longstanding commitment to community enrichment, as well as the bank's efforts to help people live with greater financial confidence and create more resilient communities. Since its inception in 2005, Housing for Everyone has provided more than $56 million to help more than 585 affordable housing initiatives in the U.S. communities TD serves from Maine to Florida and in the Detroit metro. Learn more about this year's Housing for Everyone grant program at: Housing for Everyone