Third Meal Challenge

Which Doctor to Trust

A patient was raced to the hospital for a life-saving operation. The department head checked him thoroughly, came to his conclusions about how would be best to operate, and decided to do the surgery himself. However, a visiting professor who was also an expert in the field argued he could do the operation better, in a different way. The department head was renowned for his breadth of knowledge. On the other hand, the visiting professor was renowned for his brilliance and depth of insight.

Unable to come to a decision of who was better skilled to perform the operation, they decided to present the two sides to the patient himself, and let him make the decision. The patient then presented the question to Rav Zilberstein

Holocaust Survivor

Faigie Libman was born in Kaunas, Lithuania, in 1934. She was an only child. In 1941 a ghetto was established in Slobodka, where Faigies family spent the next three years. In 1944, the Jews of Kaunas were transported in cattle cars to concentration camps. Her father was sent to Dachau where he later died. She and her mother were shipped to Stutthof and then three labour camps. In 1945, the Russians liberated their camp. Faigie and her mother were the only surviving members of their family. Her father died the same week they were liberated. After living in a Displaced Persons camp in Austria, her mother located her sister in Montreal and they emigrated to a new life in Canada in 1948. In 1972, she and her husband Benny moved to Toronto, where she taught Junior Kindergarten for more than 30 years. Faigie is devoted to her four children, 11 grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Weekly Sponsorship Opportunities

Dear Parents & Grandparents, planning is underway for the Friedman Family Saturday Night Learning program which will launch

Saturday Night November 13 at 7:00 pm at The Shul - 949 Clark Ave W

Our goal is it to give the children the best possible experience every week & become the best learning program in Thornhill.

How?

By adding special programs each week to the Learning.

Special-Holiday activities , entertainment, food and of course PRIZES.

We can do this easily with your help. For only $120 per session, families can honour or remember family members, occasions or "Just because." What better way to honour a lifecycle event than supporting kids learning Torah together. All donations are tax deductible.

For more details please contact our Youth Director David Toledano or Board Youth Chair Paul Paskovaty
