SECOND ANNUAL DAVID SHENTOW MEMORIAL LECTURE

GUEST SPEAKER

Pinchas Gutter

Holocaust Survivor

Pinchas was born in Lodz and was 7 years old when the war broke out. Pinchas and his family were incarcerated in the Warsaw Ghetto for three and a half years until April 1943. During the first three weeks of the Ghetto uprising, his family's bunker was discovered and they were deported to the death camp, Majdanek. The day the family arrived after a horrendous journey, Pinchas' father, mother and twin sister were murdered by the Nazis.

Pinchas was sent to a work camp where people were beaten, shot or worked to death. He passed through several other concentration camps, including Buchenwald. Towards the end of the war he was forced on a death march from Germany to Theresstadt in Czechoslovakia which he barely survived. He was liberated by the Russians on May 8, 1945. He lives in Toronto.
