Patti Dolman

THE TZARCHEI TZIBUR AWARD RECIPIENT

Patti was born in Toronto, the eldest of three, Patti, David Morris Z"ל and Gail (and Avi) Benshabat. An adventurous spirit took her to Collingwood where she worked as a ski patroller, sold resort real estate and owned a Bed and Bath Shop. Charles was sent up north to work for a month; the stars were aligned and he met his Beshert.

Married life began in Thornhill where their daughter, Tali, was born and continues to live with her husband, Moshe Rabinowitz and their son, David. Patti currently works for York Region Board of Education in Special Ed.

After a thorough search for a Shul with the right fit for them, Patti and Charles discovered Aish Hatorah and in 1995 participated in the ground-breaking ceremony and have been active members ever since.

Aish HaTorah and the Aish Thornhill Community Shul have been part of every Simcha milestone, from Tali's Bat Mitzvah to David's bris.

To be part of the Aish Thornhill Community Shul that leads by example has been a genuinely rewarding experience for Patti but to be acknowledged for her efforts is a humbling one. To receive the Tzarchei Tzibur Award is an honour that she is accepting with heartfelt appreciation.

What Would You Do?

Join Rabbi Rothman as he introduces a controversial question in Halacha, and join him in debate & discussion as we evaluate how Jewish Law sees these difficult challenges in contemporary society.
