Names remain on this list for an entire Hebrew month and are removed on Rosh Chodesh.

Please call or write to have the name added again for the following month if needed.

Including the names of those who are ill in our prayers not only directly benefits the ill person; it is equally beneficial to the person praying. Along with the giving of Tzedaka one should include the names of members of the community within one's prayers on a regular basis. Since we are requesting mercy from the Almighty, it is customary to include the person's name and that of their mother.

To add a name to this list, kindly contact the office at 905.764.1891 or e mail thes hul@aish.com with the individual's Hebrew name and that person's MOTHER'S Hebrew name.

THE GRIPES of ROTHMAN

THIS RABBI'S VIEW OF LIFE in an Age of Uncertainty

If we would go back just half a year and I would tell you that the entire world will shortly be put into quarantine, the economy of the world's most powerful nations will be in free fall, in some countries thousands of people will die and throughout the world people are getting ill, no one would have believed me.

Even more so, if I told you that this has nothing to do with war, was not caused by computer hackers, there was no use of conventional, nuclear or even chemical weapons of mass destruction, but rather by an unseen, almost invisible flu, you would certainly have taken me off to some locked ward in a psychiatric hospital.

As we are now in the month of Nissan, the central month of freedom and of course, Pesach; allow me to quote from Rabbi SR Hirsch's commentary on the Torah regarding the plague of frogs.

Rabbi Hirsch asks a question that if all of us did not think of asking, I expect our teenage children did, "Why frogs? Of all things why would HaShem send frogs as a plague? Rabbi Hirsch answers that the absurdity of sending frogs, is exactly why HaShem sent frogs.

As he says, frogs are ridiculous, frogs cannot hurt anyone. They hop around, they don't bother anyone and certainly are nothing more than a slight nuisance at worst. Yet, they were able to bring the most powerful and advanced nation of the world to its knees.

Why frogs? Because logic says they have no power and are little more than the clowns of the animal world. HaShem picked the lowly frog for just that reason.

To teach the arrogant Egyptians how absurd it is to believe that they themselves are the strength and power behind the kingdom and their success.

HaShem sent frogs to teach the mighty Egyptians that it is not your strength, ingenuity or intelligence that made the Egyptian empire what it was, it was the "hand of G-d". The frogs were able to totally decimate the Egyptian economy and all of Egypt's power in the world- all without going to war, shooting a single bullet or dropping a bomb.

No reasonable person can say why this is happening now or why it is happening at all.

Yet, it appears to me that our situation with COVID-19 is exactly the same. Economies are slipping, people around the world are dying, the powerful medical field is in disarray, millions of people are being ordered to stay in quarantine within their homes- all due to a flu virus. This flu has become the Plague of Frogs of our generation.

I can't tell you why this is happening, but I can tell you some thing we can learn about it.

Could it be that G-d is ultimately letting us know that it is not us, the people of the world, the people with the power to drop bombs that would destroy humanity- who are in real control? Rather it is G-d himself who has the ultimate and real power.

We are not discussing the effect of a chemical or nuclear war, we are not dealing with issues of security, but rather all we can talk, think or dream about is finding a vaccination for this virus, a virus that should not have such enormous effect on our modern sophisticated world- but yet it does.

The lesson of G-d running the world is not one of defeatism or destiny. Rather it is that G-d wants to partner with us in making the world the most beautiful, just, free and kind place we could imagine.

He invites us to participate. Sure, we need to discover the vaccination. He wants us to use our mind and our advancements in medicine to find a cure. Yet, he also wants us to include him in the process.

What we are seeing is that we cannot do it alone, our egos as humans are larger than our abilities. We turn to the Al-mighty for he has the ultimate power and oversight, yet we also look within ourselves as how to partner with him in growing.

We can use this time to help others, we can use this time to introspect, we can use this time to reevaluate our goals and ours purpose in the world.

We need to learn this lesson and accept G-d's invitation to join him in running the world.

We hear his message, let us do everything we can to stay healthy and make use of his message to grow, help and become the best people we can.

IMPORTANT JOINT STATEMENT TO THE ORTHODOX COMMUNITY

Rabbinic leaders and organizations across the Orthodox spectrum have, individually, declared the health threat presented by COVID-19 a mortal threat (sakanas nefashos). Today, we, leaders of major American Orthodox Jewish organizations, join together to reiterate, as clearly and forcefully as we can, our collective view. We have heretofore urged not only full compliance with all health guidelines issued by federal, state, and local governments, but have gone beyond those pronouncements in urging our communities to remain at home and avoid, to the maximum extent feasible, any outside interactions. In keeping with those guidelines, we have mandated scrupulous hygiene and social distancing, and urged everyone to stay home and minimize physical interaction.

We have taken the unprecedented and deeply distressing step of shuttering the central fixtures of our lives - our shuls, yeshivos and schools - and certainly to eliminate other gatherings.

WE HAVE DONE SO BECAUSE AS OBSERVANT JEWS
WE HAVE AN OBLIGATION TO PLACE SUPREME VALUE ON PROTECTING HUMAN LIFE (PIKUACH NEFESH).

The undersigned, representing the broad spectrum of organized Orthodox Jewry in the United States, wish to underscore collectively that which each of our organizations has already stated unequivocally.

STAY HOME; SAVE LIVES.

May Hashem swiftly remove this plague from the world and bless us all with health, peace and tranquility.
