

*Think creatively about your texts.
Consider podcasts, museums, magazines, journals, books and more.*

Past OLLI catalogs

- Digital copies of past OLLI catalogs can be found on the OLLI website (scroll down to the bottom of this page).

Best Books of the Year Listings

- From sources like The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Economist, and the Foreign Affairs Magazine

NU Libraries

- www.library.northwestern.edu
- Quick Link for Searches: search.library.northwestern.edu
- OLLI Specific LibGuide: Online LibGuides are ready-made subject guides and useful research tools: libguides.northwestern.edu/OLLI_Libguide

Chicago Collections Consortium

- chicagocollections.org
- Click here for a link to the recent OLLI noontime lecture with CCC director Jeanne Long (you must log into Canvas to access the link).

Pod Casts

- Example: 30 best educational podcasts: <https://mashable.com/article/best-educational-podcasts>

Credible, Expert Blogs and Websites:

- Example: Historynet: <https://www.historynet.com/about-historynet/?r>
- Example: National History Museum: <https://naturalhistorymuseum.blog/>

Free Expert Presentations

- Example: Ted Talks: <https://www.ted.com/talks>

Museums

- Example: 12 Famous Museums with Virtual Tours: <https://www.travelandleisure.com/attractions/museums-galleries/museums-with-virtual-tours>

YouTube Channels

- Example: Big Think: <https://www.youtube.com/@bigthink/about>
- Example: National Geographic: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCpVm7bg6pXKo1Pr6k5kxG9A>

Series

- Example: Rotten (food supply issues): <https://www.netflix.com/title/80146284>