Millennium Park Virtual Tree Lighting

Mayor Lori E. Lightfoot and DCASE recently announced details for the 107th Annual City of Chicago Christmas Tree in Millennium Park. This year's Tree is a 45-foot Blue Spruce donated by the family of Catherine Townsend of Chicago's Morgan Park neighborhood (19th ward).

Millennium Park holiday programs are produced by DCASE and presented by Powering Chicago, with support from the Millennium Park Foundation and Chicago Transit Authority. Due to COVID-19 health and safety concerns, DCASE will not present an in-person Tree lighting ceremony for the public, but Chicagoans and visitors are invited to attend a new virtual holiday program premiering on November 19 at 6:30pm at www.YouTube.com/ChicagoDCASE

Residents and visitors can visit Millennium Park to see the City of Chicago Christmas Tree shining brightly near the intersection of Michigan Ave. and Washington St. from November 20 through January 7.

The Park is open daily, 8am to 9pm, for groups of 10 persons or fewer who practice physical distancing and wear face coverings.

Make Room @ The Table: Tips for a Solo Holiday

Table for one this Thanksgiving? Here are some tips for a festive solo holiday

These recommendations take into account the need for mask wearing, social distancing and other appropriate restrictions to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. They also include ideas appropriate for a wide range of budgets.

Invite someone you know will also be alone to share Thanksgiving dinner via Zoom.

Talk about the dishes you've made for each course and why you included them on your Thanksgiving menu.

Write a note to people you are thankful for in your life. Or, reach out to them by phone, e-mail or text.

Leave a plant, homemade goodies or a card at the door of a neighbor you know is alone on Thanksgiving.

Set aside a portion of your Thanksgiving dinner for a friend who is observing the holiday alone and deliver it to their door.

Invite a friend or neighbor who is alone to go for a socially distanced walk on Thanksgiving.

*Make Room @ The Table is a Chicago-based Affinity Group focused on developing strategies to alleviate isolation and loneliness among older people.
