Wednesday, March 18 @ Minneapolis Club (11:30am - 1:30pm)

Michael Crow

Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions

Michael oversees the Financial Institutions Division. He is responsible for overseeing the Department's regulation of state-chartered banks and credit unions, as well as non-bank financial institutions licensed in Minnesota, encompassing trust and finance companies, mortgage-related businesses, money transmitters and the securities industry.

Crow joined the Department in 2010 and previously served as Director of Banking & Trust. He has a background in risk analysis and accounting and is a graduate from the University of Colorado Graduate School of Banking.

Caitlin Hoover

National Bank Examiner – RRED Resource Team Manager
– Compliance/CRA

Caitlin is a National Bank Examiner located in Minneapolis. She is a Resource Team Manager where she identifies and assesses national resource priorities for banks of all sizes. Prior to her current role, she served as a Midsize and Community Bank Supervision Team Leader and Analyst to the Assistant Deputy Comptroller.

Caitlin joined the OCC in 2009 after graduating from Minnesota State University, Mankato with a degree in Economics.

Dana Pape

Field Supervisor, Minneapolis Field Office

Dana is a FDIC Field Supervisor assigned to the Minneapolis Territory. Ms. Pape began her career with the FDIC during June of 2006 as an assistant examiner, become a Senior Examiner in 2012, and accepted a Supervisory Examiner position in 2021. She completed numerous risk management examinations at community banks of varying sizes and complexities, including several examinations that involved irregular or fraudulent activities.

In May 2024, she became a Field Supervisor within the Risk Management division where she is responsible for planning, directing, and coordinating examination activities; developing newly hired personnel; and maintaining working relationships with bank and supervisory authorities.

Ryan Baker (Moderator)

Vice President

Ryan joined SPECTRUM as Vice President in 2022 after a decade in the due diligence services industry. He is a Minnesota native and graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire, where he obtained a degree in Business Management and Marketing as well as his Leadership Certificate.

Ryan has strong industry connections in the Midwest and vast experience aligning lending solutions for clients in various finance and legal industries nationwide. He spends the majority of his time sourcing non-bank financing opportunities by working closely with commercial bankers, restructuring advisors, business consultants, investment bankers, CPA's and attorneys as well as handling initial underwriting.

He is an active board member of the Minnesota Chapters for the Secured Finance Network (SFNet), the Turnaround Management Association (TMA), and the Risk Management Association (RMA).
