

Thomas Donnelly is the former head of Loan Workout at Webster Bank. He has more than 25 years of experience and has worked out loans to a wide variety of industries and loan structures. Prior to Webster, Tom held leadership positions in loan workout with UBS and General Electric Commercial Finance.

He is thoroughly versed in problem loan workouts, balance sheet restructures, liquidations, bankruptcy, and DIP lending. Tom was also instrumental in resolving bank regulatory issues having been recruited by CIT to resolve a Consent Decree that was issued to the firm regarding problem loan management.

Tom also teaches problem loan workout having lectured at the Kellogg School of Business, Quinnipiac Law School, and the Risk Management Association.

He holds an MBA in Finance from Widener University. Tom is also a past member of the TMA Connecticut Chapter's Board of Directors.