

Cameron Reid, MBA

Sr. Manager: Government Contractor Services

+1 (414) 777 5498

cameron.reid@bakertilly.com

Areas of expertise:

Supply Chain Risk Management
ERP Implementations
Global Compliance
Business Process Optimization

Cameron Reid is a senior manager with over 25 years of management and technology consulting experience across a wide range of industries, including government contracting, manufacturing, distribution, defense contracting, chemical, and healthcare. He joined Baker Tilly in 2015 and is leading supply chain initiatives in the Government Contractor Services group. Cameron specializes in global supply chain management, technology implementations, supply chain risk mitigation, and business process improvements both domestically and internationally.

Over the past 15 years, Cameron has had a heavy focus on international supply chain efforts and technology deployments. He has led business process improvement projects resulting in significant risk profile mitigations, 90% process efficiency gains, 45% warehousing on time delivery improvements and 30% inventory reductions. He has deployed ERP technologies throughout Europe, Asia, Central and North America. Cameron has managed global sourcing efforts realizing over $100 million in savings for his clients.

Cameron holds a degree business administration from Marquette University and an MBA from Cardinal Stritch University. He is also a Six Sigma Black Belt and LEAN practitioner.