We need volunteers for four different categories:

1. Agent hosts - As an agent host, you would pick up on Friday and return your agent at the airport either Saturday night, or Sunday, be responsible to get him/her to the dinner that evening for the staff Friday night, return them to the hotel and pick them back up and take them to the conference on Saturday. Wonderful opportunity to get some time with an agent

2. Room monitors - As a room monitor, you would be assigned to one room all day. As different speakers move in and out of your room, you may need to assist them in getting their audio-visual equipment working if they have a Powerpoint need a minimum of (7), if more, can alternate or fill in for bathroom breaks etc.

We now have 7 room monitors, so new volunteers will be directed to timers or front desk.

3. One-on-One staffers - These people will keep the timers on the appointments in the One-ON-One rooms so authors can meet with agents and staff. It will be very important to check the authors in at their scheduled time and to assure they do not go over their scheduled time allotment.

4. Front desk person - helping people sign in.

As with anything - there always seem to be unexpected things that arise, so I hope that any volunteer would be willing to pitch in wherever needed.
