

May 12. 2021 Grabbing the Reader Workshop

Get feedback on your work from your peers. Submissions will be arranged by groups of four. You do NOT have to be present to participate. All feedback will be online.

Each author in your group will submit work (MAX 3000 WORDS) to the other three members of your group. You will use the Anthology matrix to give feedback on the six main points (no need to score – just give written feedback on each point) and submit back to each member in your group. Everyone will have a chance to revise, then share you experience at the May 12 meeting. If you plan on submitting for the 2021 anthology, this is a good opportunity to get feedback on it before submitting.

If you want to participate:

By Jan. 13 meeting – let Joanne know if you are interested in participating. (latest Feb. 3)

By Feb. 10 meeting – Joanne will let you know to what group you are assigned and give you the email addresses of the people in your group.

By March 10 meeting – Your story should be submitted to everyone in your group.

By April 14 meeting – All feedback submitted to your group.

By May 12 meeting. Revise your story, plan to share experience at the meeting.
