COMMUNITY SADDLES UP FOR 47TH ANNUAL BUCKBOARD PARADE AND FESTIVAL THIS SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19

PARADE LINE UP ANNOUNCED

ROWLAND HEIGHTS, CA – OCTOBER 17, 2019 – The community is invited to come out and celebrate the 47th annual Buckboard Days Parade and Festival this Saturday, October 19, 2019 with this year's theme, "FALL in Love With Rowland Heights." The parade begins at 9 a.m. at the corner of Nogales and Colima and will conclude at Rowland Heights County Park for the Festival from 11:00 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Hacienda Heights Kiwanis will be sponsoring a pancake breakfast before the parade, starting at 7 a.m. Come early and enjoy breakfast at the Bell Memorial Church parking lot on Nogales near the corner of Colima (1747 Nogales St, Rowland Heights). Breakfast is $5 per person. For more information the community can visit www.buckboarddaysparade.org.

The parade will feature a variety of local school bands, community organizations, equestrian groups, floats and a horse-drawn buckboard. The 2019 Grand Marshal is local veterinarian, Dr. Samir Sargious (Dr. Sam).

Following the Buckboard Days Parade will be a Family Festival at Rowland Heights County Park from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. For everyone's enjoyment, there will be entertainment on stage and throughout the park with a variety of community booths offering food, handmade arts and crafts and community information and services until 2 p.m. organized by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.
