

NOVEMBER 6-7, 2023 COLLEGE STATION, TX

ABOUT

The Propane Council of Texas (ProCOT) invites area emergency responders to our Propane Emergencies Training also known as Propane Incident Management Training. The training will be hosted at Texas A & M University's TEEX Brayton Training Field in College Station, TX. The training combines classroom and live-fire over an action-packed two days in November.

LOCATION

TEEX Brayton Fire Field
1595 Nuclear Science Road
College Station, TX 77843

SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER 6, 2023

7:30 am Breakfast
8:00am – 5:00pm Training
Reception & Dinner to follow

NOVEMBER 7, 2023

7:30 am Breakfast
8:00am – 5:00pm Training

REGISTRATION

Emergency Responder Registration

$135 tuition per firefighter

Registration includes: 2
breakfasts, 2 lunches, 1
dinner, 2 days of training,
& TEEX certificate.

TUITION GRANTS

Firefighter registration is approved for tuition reimbursement through the Texas Forest Service.

COURSE TOPICS

- Propane physical properties & characteristics
- Vapor control & dispersion
- Propane bobtail & transport safety features
- Transportation emergencies
- Bulk storage safety features & emergencies
- Propane cylinder control
- Residential propane emergencies & cooling the tank

QUESTIONS?

Please call the Propane Council of Texas (ProCOT) at (800)325-7427 press # 2 or email info@propanecounciloftexas.org

Learn more at www.procot.org/propanefiretraining